Article Writing Competition – “INKED for Impact”

As part of the week-long Independence Day celebrations, the Equal Opportunity Cell of Vivekananda College organized an intra-college article writing competition on 13th August 2024, titled INKED for Impact: Spreading Organ Donation Awareness. Guided by Teacher Convenor Ms. Karishma Popli and faculty members, the event invited students to explore the ethical, medical, and social dimensions of organ donation. Nine entries were received and evaluated by Dr. Sophia PDE and Dr. Ankita, with Sneha (B.A. Programme 2nd Year) securing the first prize, followed by Priya (B.Com Programme 2nd Year) and Kanishka Singh (B.A. English Honours 3rd Year). The event successfully encouraged critical thinking, dialogue, and advocacy for a life-saving cause.

Seminar on "Disability and Inclusivity in the Classroom"

The Equal Opportunity Cell of Vivekananda College organized a talk on "Disability and Inclusivity in the Classroom" on 8th October 2024 in Sharda Hall Auditorium, featuring Dr. Someshwar Sati, Associate Professor, Kirori Mal College. Attended by around 100 students and faculty members, the event aimed to promote a supportive academic environment by fostering awareness around disability studies. Dr. Sati's thought provoking lecture highlighted the importance of inclusive language, personal experiences as a person with a disability, and societal perceptions. The session offered valuable insights into creating equitable classroom spaces.

AICB Visit

The Equal Opportunity Cell of Vivekananda College organized an enriching educational visit for 30 girl students to the All India Confederation of the Blind (AICB, Rohini) on April 3rd 2025, with the aim of fostering empathy and awareness regarding the lives of visually impaired students. Coordinated by Ms. Karishma Popli (Convener) and Dr. Ankita, the visit provided students with firsthand interaction and understanding of how visually challenged individuals pursue education and daily tasks with determination and adaptability. This experience significantly contributed to building a spirit of inclusivity and cross-learning among students.

“Promoting Human Rights and Dignity of Visually Impaired Senior Citizens”

The Equal Opportunity Cell of Vivekananda College organized a talk on “Human Rights and Dignity of Visually Impaired Senior Citizens: Role of Family, Society and Street” on 13 October 2025 in Sharda Hall. The session, attended by around 60 faculty members and students, aimed to promote awareness, inclusivity, and equity.

The resource person, Mrs. Manjula Rath, Senior Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Daulat Ram College, University of Delhi, shared insightful perspectives drawn from her personal experiences as a person with visual impairment. She emphasized the importance of inclusive language, gender equality, sensitisation, and the supportive role of family and society in empowering persons with disabilities. The talk also highlighted societal attitudes, cultural narratives, and the role of technology in enhancing independence among visually impaired senior citizens.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by the student coordinators and was appreciated for fostering empathy, awareness, and a commitment to inclusivity among participants.
