ABOUT
VIVEKANANDA COLLEGE

Vivekananda College started in 1970 in a school building with approximately 300 students. The present building was dedicated by Swami Ranganatha Nanda of the Ramakrishna Mission in 1979. This college has witnessed a meteoric rise in the number of students seeking admission in different courses, predominantly, Humanities, Commerce, and Social Sciences. The college has a dynamic and empowering educational environment for young women seeking an undergraduate degree and now fifteen departments are running with well-qualified faculty members in different disciplines and more than 2000 students. The campus is green with sprawling lawns and the college has taken several eco-friendly measures like waste composting and solar panels. It is also a disabled-friendly campus. The college aims to provide a holistic and inclusive environment. Vivekananda College has a well-equipped, state-of-the-art library to meet the essential academic and intellectual needs of its students. It is a spacious and user-friendly area, spread on three floors.

It has an open access system, Online Public Access Catalogue, and spacious reading rooms to provide an atmosphere conducive to studying. It is well stocked and the collection consists of more than 65,000 books. It subscribes to newspapers, and national and international journals, and is connected to the Delhi University network (e-Shod Sindhu) with access to DULS databases and e-resources. It also has access to the Braille Library of DULS. It is a member of N-LIST (a program of INFLIBNET) to provide remote access to users to a huge number of e-resources.

Extra-curricular activities keep the college cultural life abuzz with learning through fun. A zestful sports day and intra-murals competitions are organized every year, where college students, teachers and non-teaching staff participate in various sports with enthusiasm.

Vivekananda College puts maximum focus on sports activities and encourages students to participate and excel in a variety of games and sports that are organized regularly in our college. The College provides facilities for Athletics, Hockey, Cross country, Football, Netball and Volleyball.

The college shares its spaces with The School of Open Learning (SOL), Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board (NCWEB), University of Delhi, and Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU).
