ENACTUS SOCIETY

Enactus Vivekananda believes in providing opportunities and platforms to students with an entrepreneurial mindset. These young entrepreneurs with their brilliant and thoughtful ideas come together to make an impact on society. Enactus VNC offers an astonishing experience and opens doors to success. From the development of soft skills like communication, confidence, research to professional skills like marketing, strategist, and finance. Our team took various activities to contribute in the same manner with activities, such as:

- A carnival “PRABHA” under Project Kiran – A Ray of Hope, for promoting young college student entrepreneurs and underprivileged women entrepreneurs was organized by Enactus Vivekananda College on 23 September 2022 with the aim to provide opportunities to young entrepreneurs from different colleges/ universities and women from nearby Jhilmil and Mandawali areas so that they can showcase their talent and motivate other upcoming entrepreneurs.
- On 13 October 2022, Enactus Vivekananda College set up “Gaming Stalls” on account of World Mental Health Day and acted as an energizer to the event organized by ‘Convocare’, the Mental Health Society of Vivekananda College. The main attraction of our stall was the quote chart that aimed to promote the mental well-being of the students by providing affirmations.
- On 12 January 2023 Enactus Vivekananda College set up its “Tote Bag Stall” under our new project, Project Tarakki at ‘Pallavi’, the Annual College Fest of Vivekananda College. These tote bags were purchased from a small-scale vendor so as to promote them to step outside from their regular platform for the same. There was enthusiasm among the college individual to buy the tote bags because of their beneficial trending demand.
- Inter-college competition named “THINK TANK, a round table discussion” was held by team Enactus of Institute of Home Economics (IHE), DU on 19-20 January 2023 on the occasion of their annual fest, MELANGE '23 where interested participants got an opportunity to talk through reality on sustainability. Two students from Enactus VNC participated in the competition and secured first and second positions.
- On 29 January and 1 February 2023, Enactus Vivekananda College set up its first ever stall in other colleges under our eminent projects, Project Tarakki and Project Kiran at ‘Chetna Aarohan’, the annual cultural fest event organised by the Cultural Association of Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar College, University of Delhi. Our stall featured ethically sourced products from local beneficiaries. These products included sustainable and economical tote bags, thoughtfully designed teracotta products and scrunchies.

REPORT

A Webinar Series by The Department of Food Technology & Home Science, Vivekananda College

Webinar Series 01 Title – Millets: The Super Crop

Date: 25th August, 2022

Time: 2:30 to 4:00pm

Department of Food Technology and Home Science, Vivekananda College organized its first webinar on the theme “Millets: The Super Crop” in the light of International Year of Millets – 2023. The objective of this webinar series was to sensitize people about millets and its health benefits and to promote consumption of millets on larger scale. Consumption of millets can help to promote food and nutrition security.

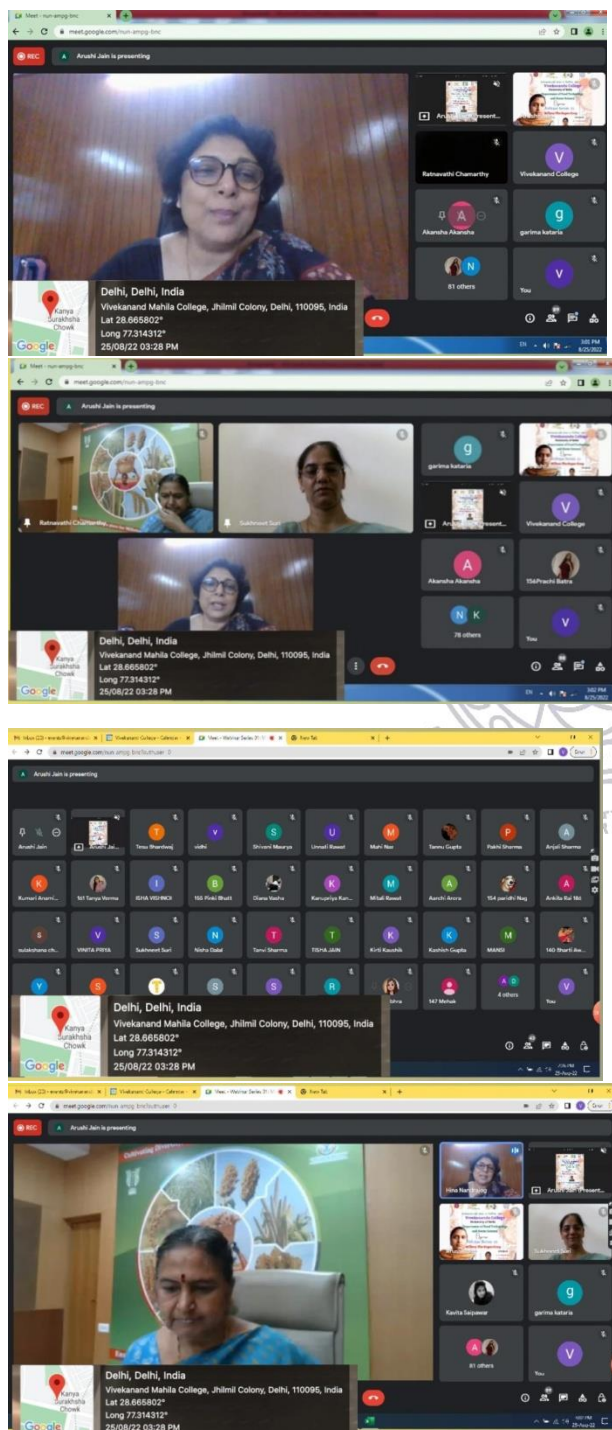

The speaker of the event was Dr. CV Ratnavathi – Director (Acting), Indian Institute of Millets Research (ICAR). She had shared her most valuable knowledge with the participants. A total of 195 delegates registered for the webinar including students, faculties and industry experts across the country using the registration link: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSe6DTyTy1XynUYiHixtq2WwRabVS4YgIT1SEy8IooC4RehSnA/viewform?usp=sf\_link.

The webinar was conducted on the online platform i.e., Google meet through the link Meet \(google.com\). A total of 127 of participants attended the webinar including students, research scholars and some were the faculty member from various institutions across the country. The webinar was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Hina Nandrajog (Offg. Principal), Dr. Sukhneet Suri (Convenor & TIC), Dr. Arushi Jain (Teacher Coordinator). Student volunteers of the college, played a proactive role in organizing this webinar.

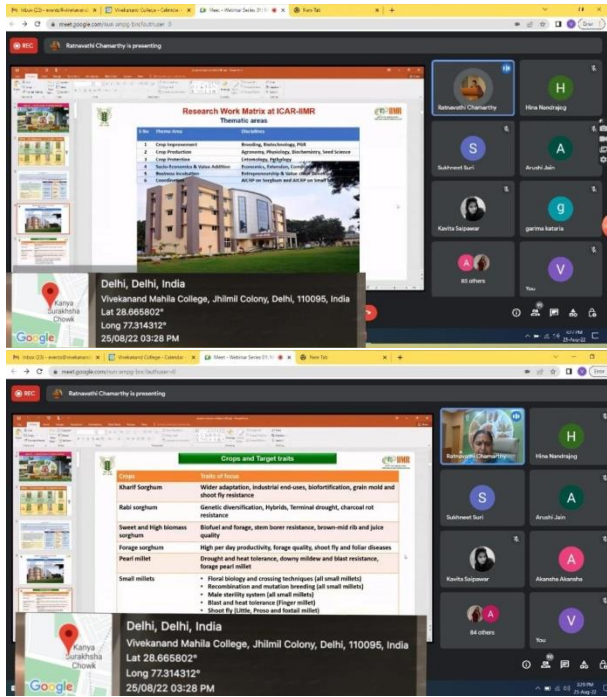

The key messages communicated were: Millets has been termed as the nutri-cereal by the Government of India (GoI) and Smart Crop by International Crops Research Institute for the Semi-Arid Tropics (ICRISAT) because of their various health benefits such as they have anti-diabetic properties, anti-cancer properties, anti-hypertensive, suitable in celiac disease, beneficial in treating stomach ulcers and gall stones, beneficial in treating allergic reactions, prevent and reduce obesity etc. Millets can be used as/in food, feed, fodder, fuel and health. Various value-added food products – ready to eat (RTE) and ready to cook (RTC) have been developed and consumed by the people but in less numbers because of lack of awareness such as muruku, laddu, puffs, biscuits, bakery products, semolina, pasta, multi-grain atta etc. Millets also plays a vital role in achieving several sustainable development goals such as Goal 02: Zero hunger, Goal 03: Good health and well being and Goal 13: Climate action. The year 2018 was celebrated as the ‘National Year of Millets’ with a motto ‘Nutricereals for Nutritional Security’ and the year 2023 is fully dedicated to the millets worldwide and will be celebrated as ‘International year of Millets’.

The webinar ended with an interactive session and a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Arushi Jain. The overall feedback of the participants was collected via feedback form circulated online for which the link was: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSe6DTyTy1XynUYiHixtq2WwRabVS4YgIT1SEy8Ilooc4RehSnA/viewform?usp=sf\_link. A positive feedback was received by the participants who attended the webinar.
