MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) signed on 23rd day of September year 2021 Hereinafter collectively called as the "Parties"

1. THE FIRST PARTY

Vivekananda College (NAAC accredited 'A' grade) is a constituent college of the University of Delhi and is one of the largest colleges of East Delhi that has been providing opportunities for higher education to women in the trans-Yamuna area since 1976. A multi-facility premier institution with qualified academicians imparting education in diverse fields, the college has a reputation for outstanding performance in academics. It attracts some of the most hard-working undergraduates every year, not simply because of its reputation in East Delhi, but more importantly because of its dedicated faculty. Several faculty members are renowned scholars in their fields. Furthermore, concerted efforts are being made to improve upon its infrastructure and facilities. Over the years, both graduate and post graduate students from Vivekananda College have performed well in life. Quite a few students have been readily admitted in renowned universities and have good jobs. Vivekananda College is situated in Vivek Vihar, Delhi - 110095, (Hereinafter called the 'First Party' or College, which expression shall, unless it be repugnant to the subject or context thereof, include its successors and assignors)

AND

2. THE SECOND PARTY:

The Institute for Industrial Development (IID), an incubator under the public private partnership with Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises and Samadhan Samiti, having its office at Gandhi Darshan, KVIC Pavilion, Rajghat New Delhi. It primarily discharges its responsibilities for online and offline training of Entrepreneurship development on behalf of Ministry of MSME, as incubator in the field of Entrepreneurship development. The training is through online portal and mobile apps. (Hereinafter called the 'Second Party' or IID, which expression shall, unless it be repugnant to the subject or context thereof, include its successors and assignors)

It is also a START UP Incubator promoted by Govt. of Uttar Pradesh and set up under PPP mode to educate, update, and train professionals and entrepreneurs and guide them with the latest technology, schemes, manufacturing processes, machinery details, project cost, etc:

3. Purpose of MOU:

Self-employment and entrepreneurship development is a key concern for both the parties and both are working for it according to their strength and domain expertise. It is obvious that Vivekananda College is more focussed on its key area of education and IID is focussed on entrepreneurship development, skill development, and on providing industrial knowledge to create industry-ready educated youth. Therefore, this MOU is designed to synergise the common areas of expertise and focus on entrepreneurship development and skill development of educated youth who are enrolled in various courses of various streams of education.

3.1. The youth shall be motivated through online workshops and EDP training, Industrial Readiness Program (IRP), short term courses and allied nurturing programmes through online portal and mobile apps. The students shall be encouraged enroll according to their domain specific stream related business models or industries. IID is imparting training, providing guidance and updation of knowledge to aspiring students regarding setting up of industries, start-ups and small businesses through its unique incubation process.

3.2. IID is the only virtual incubator in India with the Ministry of MSME, which is nurturing the youth and aspiring Entrepreneurs through weekly live Industrial workshop, expert episodes, industrial documentaries, project reports, registration, and Government schemes guidance. It is also managing MSME helpline through its call center. It has its own YouTube channel named "Entrepreneur India TV" and "Udyami India". It has its own production house at Rajghat, New Delhi which comprises of fully equipped Audio Video Studio with Chroma Facility, Editing Room, and Live Streaming equipment in Real Time. It has an in-house production team, which comprises of cinematographers, editors, anchors and content writers.

3.3. IID will appraise students of Vivekananda College about IID programmes so that the students from various streams are able to enrol voluntarily on IID portal iid.org.in and entrepreneur India Live apps for Online Entrepreneurship Development training and nurturing with various industrial process. The student may download the mobile apps to update themselves about the working of the various industries, which may give them better understanding of their job roles as well as help in self-employment. IID shall also provide this platform to alumni students of various streams to do EDP programme, who want to start their business after doing jobs or have not been able to get employment according to their qualification and skills. These Entrepreneurs can generate employment through this process and the upcoming students may be employed under these industries. IID agrees for a special concession in fees for students of Vivekananda College.

Both organizations agree to undertake the following activities:

4. First Party Roles:

The role of the First Party shall include the work designated to its departments/ committees and faculty, of the First party. The role may be defined as follows:

4.1. The First Party shall provide its platform to IID regarding implementation of Entrepreneurship Development Programme (EDP), Skill Development Programme, Industrial Readiness Programme (IRP) and allied nurturing programmes at/ to its various streams of education.

4.2. The First Party shall advise the Second Party to conduct workshops and seminars according to the requirement of the students. This will enable students to upgrade their knowledge and information about various industries, especially food industry/ e-commerce. The students enrolled with Second Party for a programme can submit their project online after attending or watching various industrial documentaries and workshops. The assessment shall also be made online and the certificate may be downloaded online. A hard copy shall be provided, if desired on request.

4.3. The students who wish to be self-employed or wish to start a business or industry or start-ups, may join online EDP courses for long term nurturing and guidance. These students are eligible to apply for loan under PMEGP scheme after completion of education and are exempted for mandatory EDP training for disbursement of loan by this certification of IID.

4.4. The expert and faculty of the Institute shall update lectures or workshop at our mobile apps with college logo and it may be utilized by the IID to show in their web site or Youtube channel to promote the content as well as the Institution incentives.

3) Conferences, Seminars, Workshops on quality conducted

- Seminar and conferences:

On April 12, 2024, IQAC at Vivekananda College organized a talk on women-related laws, coordinated by Dr. Gargi Sengupta and Dr. Sheetal, with guest speaker Ms. Shishba Chawla, Advocate-On-Record at the Supreme Court. She explained critical legal frameworks, including the Dowry Prohibition Act, PoSH Act, Domestic Violence Act, and related IPC provisions, while cautioning against their misuse. The session also covered cybercrimes targeting women and the role of the Internal Complaints Committee. About 80 students attended, and a Q&A session further clarified their understanding. The event successfully raised awareness among women students.

- One-day National Symposium on Indian Narrative Tradition

Vivekananda Indian Knowledge System and Indian Tradition (VIKSIT) Centre and NEP Committee organized One-day National Symposium on July 6, 2023 at Sharda Hall. 'Indian Narrative Tradition' was the theme of the symposium. This event was the occasion for the inauguration of Vivekananda Indian Knowledge System and Indian Tradition (VIKSIT) Centre in the college. The inaugural session started with the recitation of Vedic Mantra followed by Delhi University Kulgeet. Dr. Sukhneet Suri, the convenor of the symposium, threw light on the significance of Indian Knowledge system and its place in the National Education Policy. Officiating Principal Dr. Hina Nandrajog also underlined the need and importance of establishing a center dedicated to dissemination of Indian Knowledge System. The renowned scholar, Pro. Vice-Chancellor and Padam Bhushan awardee Pro. Kapil Kapoor elaborated on the importance of Indian Knowledge system in his key-note speech. Through his lucid, eclectic presentation, Prof. Kapoor brought home the point why India is considered as Knowledge civilization. He also lamented upon the present-day generation's ignorance and apathy towards country's rich and glorious legacy of knowledge. He also discussed how narratives have been an instrument of disseminating knowledge throughout in Indian history. Guest of honour, Dr. K.K. Sharma, Vice-president of Delhi Sanskrit Academy, presented his view on the importance of narratives in Indian culture through citing a little anecdote. Inauguration session was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr, Vanita Sondhi.

The second session was in the form of workshop on Sanskrit Narratology. The session opened with the introducing remark of special guest Prof. Om Nath Bimali , the head of Sanskrit Department , Delhi University. First resource-person Dr. Pankaj Kumar Mishra, Associate Professor, St. Stephens College, discussed the origin and development of Sanskrit narratives. Second resource-person Dr. Dilip Kumar Jaiswal discussed the distinctive features of Sanskrit narratives. Event ended with vote of thanks by Dr. Salama Seth and certificate distribution. The whole event was anchored by Dr. Kamini Taneja.

4. Orientation Session on Indian Knowledge System: An Introduction

Vivekananda Indian Knowledge Systems and Indian Tradition (Viksit) Centre organized an insightful Orientation Session on ‘Indian Knowledge System: An Introduction’ on 6th February 2024. This session was designed to offer participants a comprehensive introduction to the vast and diverse domain of Indian knowledge systems, exploring their historical roots and contemporary relevance in the modern educational landscape. The session highlighted the integral aspects of traditional Indian knowledge in alignment with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. Dr. Dilip Jaiswal, the teacher coordinator, played a key role in leading the session. The session was convened by Prof. (Dr.) Sukhneet Suri, whose leadership and vision have been instrumental in advancing the objectives of the VIKSIT Centre. This event is part of the centre's ongoing efforts to raise awareness and further the academic discourse on Indian knowledge traditions within and beyond the academic community.
