5. An Excursion to Jodhpur and Jaisalmer, Rajasthan

Excursion / Educational Trip S.2.4 - Commerce -II
To
Jodhpur & Jaisalmer, Rajasthan 5.2.4
Dated: 12th Feb to 16th Feb, 2020

Organized for B.Com (P/H) Final Year Students, Department of Commerce
Vivekananda College University of Delhi

Trip Begins with 32 students and 03 faculty members went to see Jodhpur (Blue City) and Jaisalmer (Golden city), some of the historical forts with Mr. Dhirender as a guide for the 5 days trip.

The Journey start from impressive Mehrangarh Fort, regally set on a sandstone hill built by Rao Jodha in 1459. From the top of the fort we had a bird's eye view of the old city to the Jaswant Thada. Umaid Bhavan built between 1929 and 1942 at the behest of Maharaja Umaid Singh during a long famine, this palace is partly museum, partly royal residence, and in parts a Heritage Hotel. At the end of the Jodhpur tour enjoy a short walk and shopping through the Clock Tower bazaar.

In Jaisalmer, Gadisar Lake artificially built by the first Maharaja of the city- raja Rawal Jiaswal as a water conservation reservoir that would help the major water problems that his peoples were facing. Proceed to visit Jaisalmer Fort known as SONAR QUILA- rising from the sand, the mega structure that merges with the golden hues of the desert ambience and the setting suns in its most colorful shades gives it a wonderful look. Patwon Ji Ki Haveli this is one of the largest and most elaborate Haveli in Jaisalmer and stands in a narrow lane. It is five stories high and is extensively carved.

We visited to Desert Dangry Camp, in the evening enjoyed Jeep safari and camel safari at sun set point. Cultural night organized by management of the Desert Dangry Camp and spends a night at the dunes. Rajasthani Folk Dance. She has presented Rajasthani Folk Cultural program like as Kalbelia dance, Chari dance and Gair dance on the stage. Students enjoyed and applaud their comendable efforts.

In Last, the Jaisalmer War Museum displays war exhibits which include vehicles and equipment's captured during the course of operation in 1965 and 1971. Visit two large informational hall- Indian army Hall and Laungewala hall, an audio Visual room, a souvenir Shop and a cafeteria.

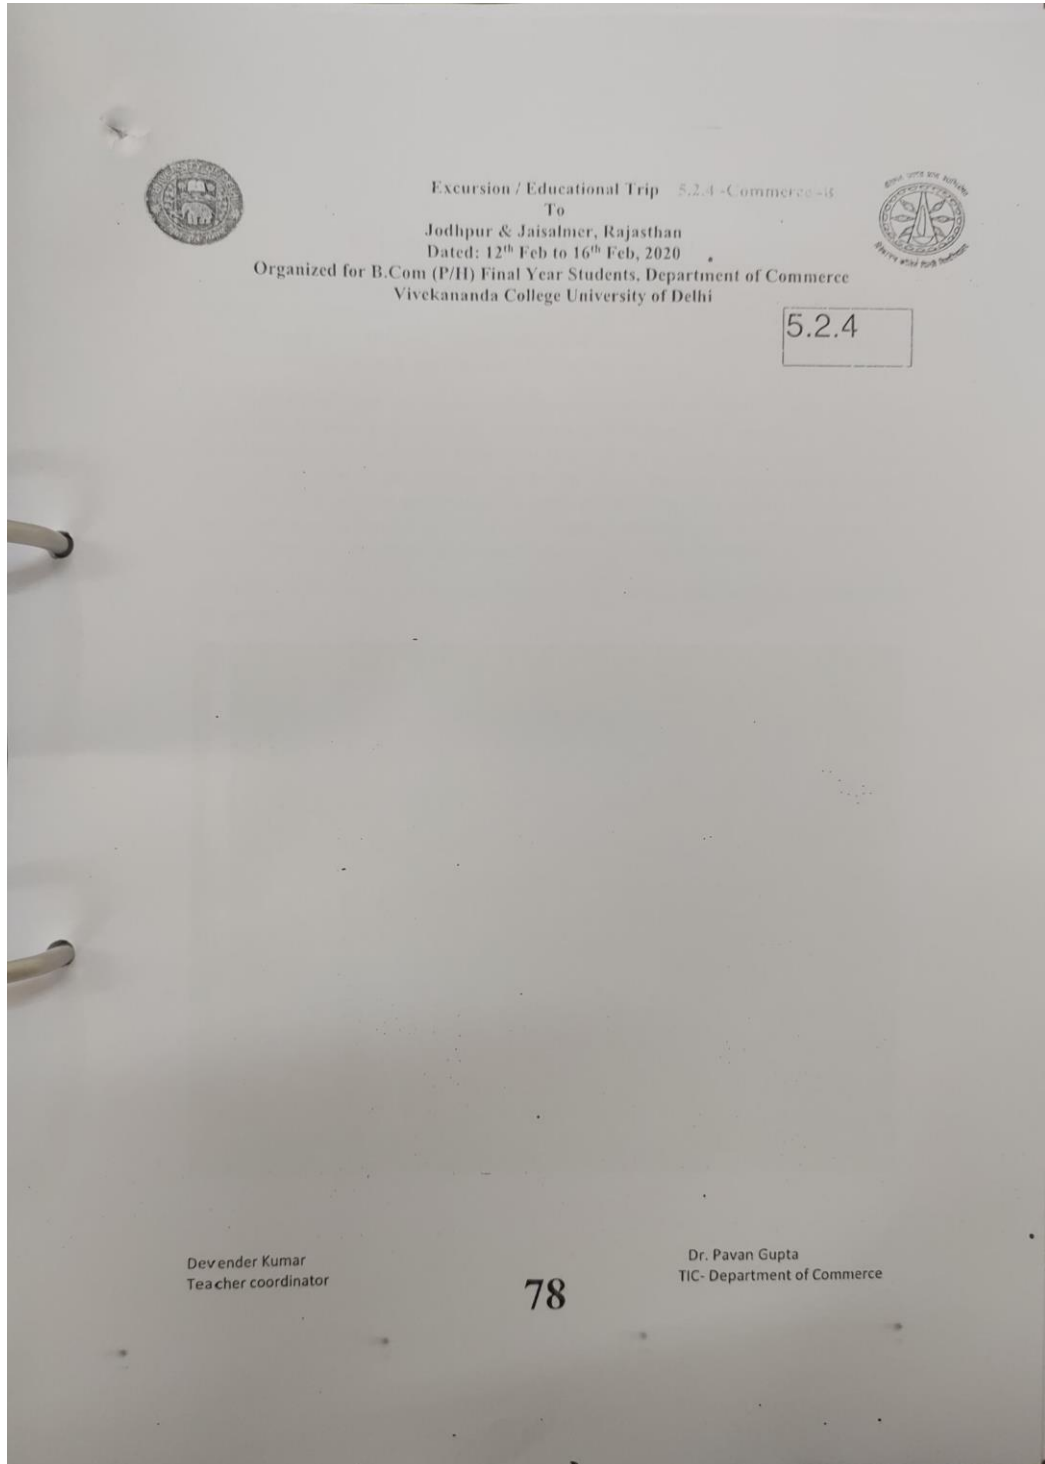

By Train and Bus journey, we all come to the collége and finally we are back to home with loving memories of SAHHI TRIP of Rajasthan.

Report on Trip to Suraj Garh Farms on 3rd March, 2020.

The Commerce Department of Vivekananda College, University of Delhi including 52 members (students and Faculty) went on a one day excursion to Surajgarh Farms, Gurugram, Haryana on 3rd March, 2020. Around 50 km away, the bus left from college around 8.30 am and reached around 11 am. We were given a traditional Tilak welcome into the ticketing area, followed by wide variety of breakfast. With a rustic outlook and spread over a large area with lush green farms, Surajgarh was a fusion of two states- Haryana and Rajasthan.

The day was flurry of activities consisting of Archery, Airgun shooting, Gulet, Dart, Camel ride, Tractor ride, Bullock Cart ride, Pottery, Charkha, Chakki, Buttermilk, Mehndi, Tug of War, Sack race, Maiki race, Matki Fod, Burma Bridge, Trampoline jumping, Badminton, Carrom, Chess, Ludo, Table Tennis, Kanche, Lattoo, Pithoo, Table Tennis, Kanche, Lattoo, Pithoo, Gulli Danda, Kite flying, Cricket, Football, Volleyball, Head massage, Mud bath and Tubewell bath. In between the activities, we could enjoy Nimboo Shikanji, Chaach, Tea, Pakoras, Bajre ki Roti, hot milk with Jalebi, etc. The lunch served by them was also good. The staff deployed for managing the activities were polite and helpful. The entire group of faculty and students had absolute fun, when they danced on loud Dj with variety of Punjabi, Bhojpuri and Bollywood songs. The day concluded with beautiful pictures taken in picturesque locations of Surajgarh Farms. It was an exquisite getaway, far away the hustle and bustle of Delhi.

Report on Webinar conducted on Title: .COVID-19 and Economy: Impact, Challenges and Way Forward

Date(s): 22nd April 2020

An International webinar was conducted by the Department of Economics of Vivekananda College affiliated to Delhi University on 22 April, 2020 from 11 am to 1:30 pm. The webinar was attended by 136 participants using zoom where the digital platform was accessed across different cities of world, especially India and Bangladesh. The Webinar focused on discussing the Impact and Challenges of COVID-19 on Indian Economy and the other South Asian Economies.

The webinar commenced with a Welcome note by Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Officiating Principal of Vivekananda College. This was followed by an address by the Keynote Speaker, Professor Shahab Enam Khan who is currently working in the Department of International Relations, Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh. Prof. Shahab analyzed the South Asian Policy with respect to COVID-19 emphasizing the adverse impact of the crisis on the manufacturing industries, especially in low income economies. With special reference to textile industries of Bangladesh, he explained the adverse impact of all time low world demand on the economies that are already facing resource crunch to stabilize their position.

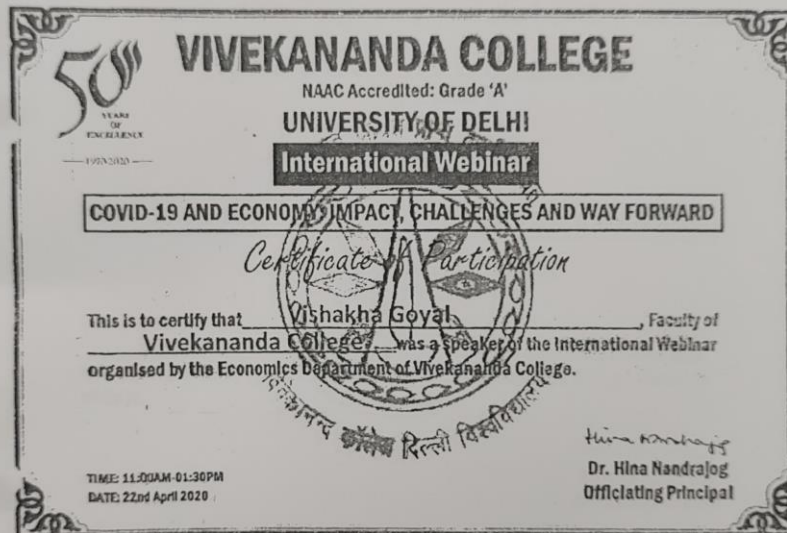

Dr. Anjan Chakrabarti, Associate Professor, UGC Human Resource Centre, West Bengal and Ms. Pooja Sharma, Senior Assistant Professor, Daulat Ram College, University of Delhi discussed the challenges and impact on the informal sector in rural areas and urban areas respectively. Ms. Vishakha Goyal, Assistant Professor, Vivekananda College provided key insights of India's Public Health Policy during the Pandemic. She also reviewed India's position on three key parameters of public health which are hygiene, diagnostics and hospitalization. Mr. Emmanuel Thomas, Assistant Professor, St. Thomas College, Thrissur discussed fiscal and monetary responses to solve the current crisis and minimize its impact in the short term as well as the long term. Prof. Iman Kalyan Lahiri, Department of International Relation and Secretary, Jadhavpur Association of International Relations examined the geo-political relations of India in post COVID times and the new status quo of major economies and multilateral institutions post crisis. Dr. Vanita Sondhi, Associate Professor, Vivekananda College concluded the event with a vote of thanks.

The webinar was very informative and greatly appreciated by everyone. The question answer session saw a host of questions from the participants and resulted in a lively discussion.

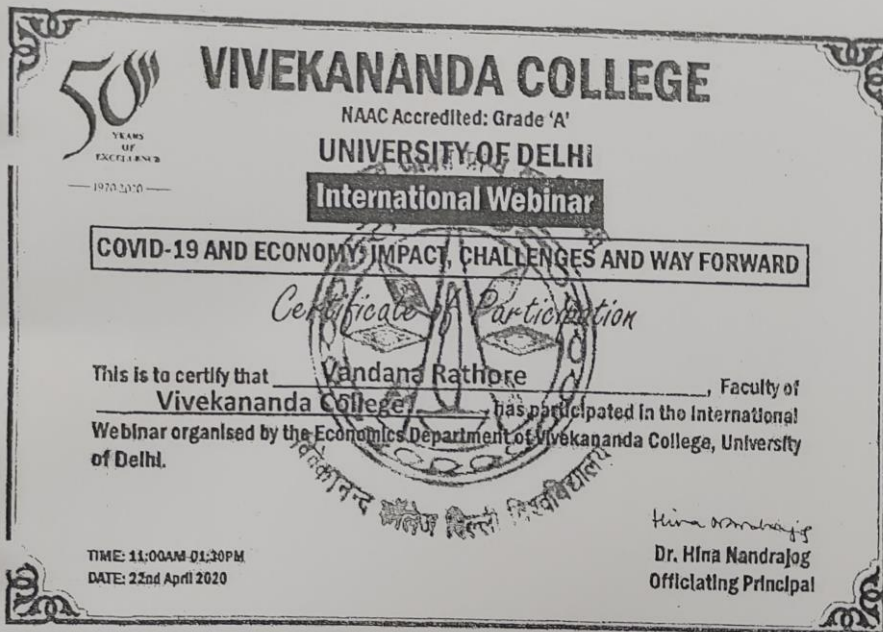

The entire program was co-ordinated with the support of the Principal, Dr.Hina Nandrajog and faculty members and non-teaching members of Vivekananda College.

31 parents came to attend the meeting. Hina Nandrajog, the Officiating Principal, on request from the Teacher-in-charge, addressed the parents and the students. She apprised them of the rules and regulations and the issue of minimum attendance of the students for eligibility to take exams in particular was highlighted. They were told to check college website regularly to stay in touch with the college affairs. She also asked them to come forward with complaints or suggestions for effective working of the College. The teacher-in-charge requested the parents to discuss freely about their wards and seek clarification from the teachers. She told them that they could contact the college and teachers through phone or meeting in person after seeking appointment.

3. The Department also organized Alka Rani Memorial Lecture on 25.09.2019. Dr Ajay Verma, Associate Professor in Centre for Philosophy, School of Social Sciences, Jawahar Lal Nehru University was invited to deliver the lecture. He spoke on 'History of Hermeneutics and Hermeneutics of History: Eastern and Western Perspectives'. The lecture was meaningful for both the teachers and the students.

A webinar was organised on 15th May 2020 on the topic "The Pandemic and the Great Indian Labour Migration"

5.2.4

In the Webinar, three eminent scholars Shri Prassana (Theatre Director, writer and activist), Dr Rama Shankar (Ex-fellow IAS, Shimla), Dr Abdul Rahman (People Dispatch/Newslick) were invited to share their thoughts.

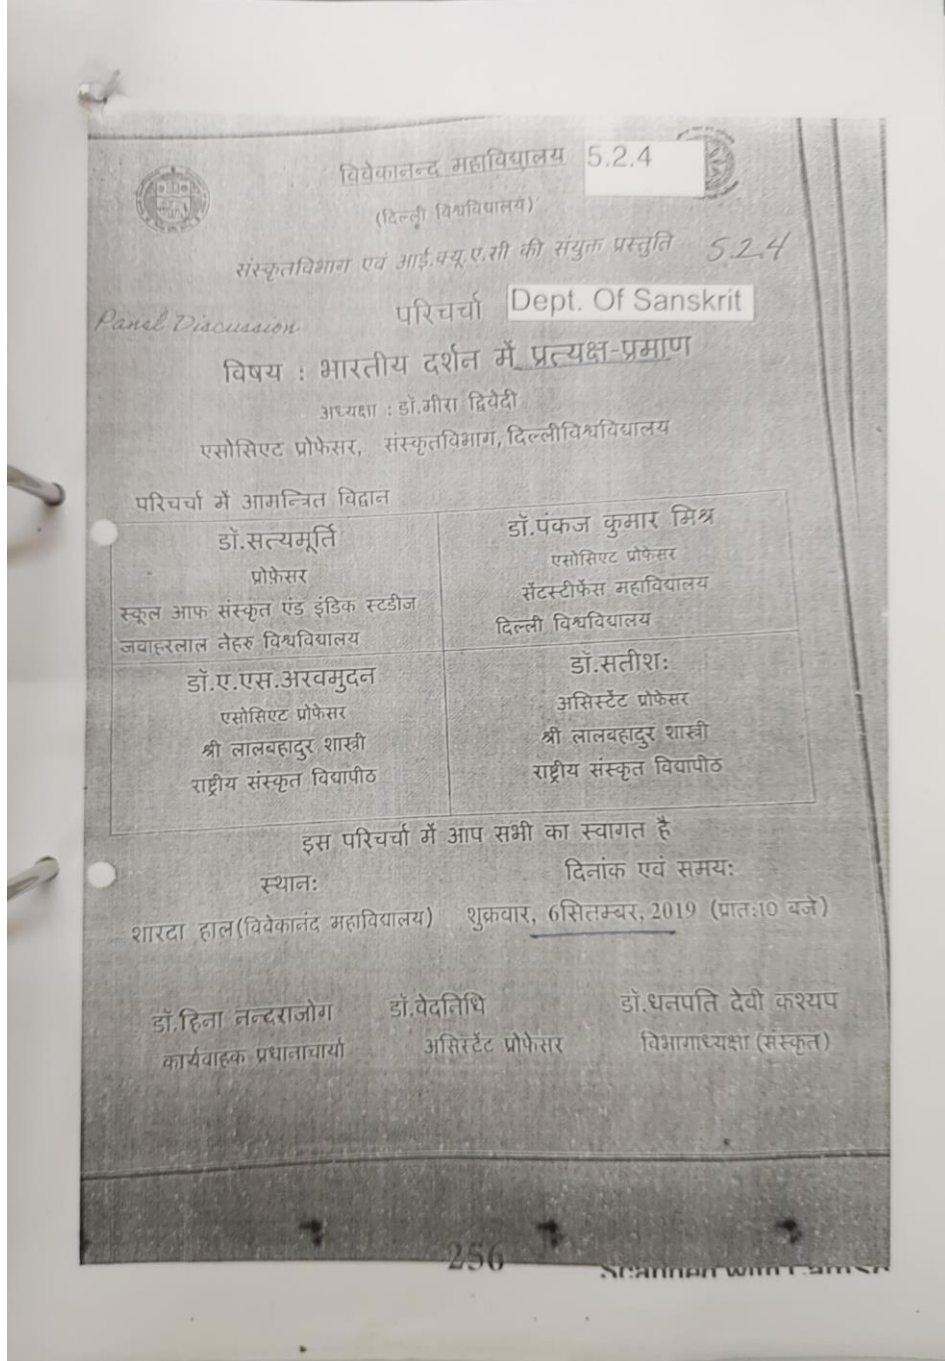

The webinar started with the welcome note and an introduction to the topic was presented by Dr Anjana Kumari (Teacher In-charge) , Political science department. As the first speaker, shri Prassana questioned the mindset of the state by highlighting that how the transformation towards monster economy is making the human hands irrelevant. More reliance on mechanisation and automation is making labour population easily disposable. He said that in current scenario state should "follow" the labour and try to create employment relevant to the skills they have.

Dr Abdul Rahman presented his points via statistics on approx number of migrant labour population in India and around the world. He highlighted that how workers dignity is demeaned as they are left to charity, how amended labour rights are further onslaught on employment security and no agricultural support in rural areas is causing further distress.

Dr Rama Shankar questioned the policy measures of the government that how this migration crisis was never envisaged and how not our bureaucracy but our social scientists have failed in realizing the upcoming migration crisis due to the pandemic. He emphasized on the long term policy measures to bridge the rural-urban divide to mitigate future labour migration and constitutional measures and accordingly policy measures that need to be prepared for such future events and to take learning from the current crisis.

In one and half hour webinar, more than 250 members (Faculty members and students) participated. Webinar concluded with summarizing remarks presented by Dr. Anjana Kumari and with thanks speech of principal madam, Dr Hina Nandrajog.

Tier II Account is a Deposit Account and the whole amount can be withdrawn .
 Tier I account – 25 % of the amount can be withdrawn for marriage and home buying options. Subscriber Modification is enabled for DDO users. Authorization is done at PAO level. Modification of Bank Details is not allowed during Superannuation or premature exit requests.

Tier II Account is an investment account and a Tier I Account is needed to enable its functioning. It functions like Mutual Funds – there are 7 Fund Managers and can include a deposit as little as INR 250.

Money can be transferred from Tier I to Tier II. However, only the Tier I Account can be used for Tax Benefits. There is no minimum balance and no additional AMC.

As far as Exit options and Exit Process is concerned Premature Withdrawal under NPS allows 20 % lump sum and 80 % for purchasing Annuity. At the age of 60 years, 60% amount can be withdrawn as lump sum and 40% as Pension

Deferment in case of death – 20 % is transferred to the Nominee and the rest 80 % to spouse.

Bird Watching in India: Balcony to Bush

A webinar on “Bird Watching in India: Balcony to Bush” was organized by IQAC of Vivekananda College on May 17, 2020, from 3:00 P.M to 4:00 P.M. The webinar commenced with a welcome note by Dr. Hina Nandrajog, the Officiating Principal of Vivekananda College. The speaker for the event was Dr. Asani Bhaduri, Assistant Professor at the Cluster Innovation Centre, Delhi University. Dr. Bhaduri is a wildlife enthusiast and a birder and is actively concerned with the issues of environment.

Dr. Bhaduri covered basic insights into the art of Bird Watching in a short span of time. Taking the participants through his journey of bird-watching, he explained what to look for in order to make the experience of bird watching meaningful. He shared his knowledge to locate and identify birds, giving essential details about bird watching equipment as well. He also enriched us about how the hobby can be pursued from the balconies itself in the tough times of Pandemic Lockdown and then can be further explored in the bush. This webinar came at a time when people are more and more concerned about the material life and less and less aware about the basics of nature and environment that surround us.

The webinar received enthusiastic participation from around 100 participants especially college students and faculty members from various colleges, who got introduced to this interesting hobby. This will hopefully bring them closer to nature. A pre-webinar feedback form revealed that about sixty percent of the participants had no prior experience to this hobby and the post-webinar feedback revealed that the webinar has enhanced their interests to organize such future endeavors.

The webinar concluded with a vote of thanks from Mrs. Purnima Vir, Convenor of IQAC of Vivekananda College. The webinar was made successful with the support and guidance of Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Officiating Principal of Vivekananda College, Mrs. Purnima Vir, Convenor, IQAC, members of IQAC and non-teaching staff of Vivekananda College.

5.2.4 PLACEMENT COMMITTEE

A) Report of Discussion and Personal Interview Preparation'

Placement and Career Guidance committee organised an interactive training seminar on 'Group Discussion and Personal Interview Preparation' by TIME group on 20th August 2019 in Sharda Hall at 2.30 pm. The session was conducted by Mr. Anuj Jain. Apart from providing valuable guidance on how to approach group discussions and personal interviews, he also conducted a mock group discussion which enabled the student to understand how to make preparation for the same and also to identify some of their strengths and weaknesses. It was attended by 72 students, of both BA programme and Honours courses.

B) The Placement and Career Guidance committee invited the Genpact company for on – campus recruitment of third year students on 12th February, 2020.

उसके मन में हल्की सी आशा की
 किरणें जलती ही हैं...
 वैसे ही उसके दर्द की परतों को
 उधारने का खिलखिला गुरू हो जाता है...
 मुखे धासे पैदल ही वो लंबी दूरियों
 को तय करने में जुट जाता है...
 रास्ते में बाँटे जा रहे खाने के पैकेटों
 के लिए भी,
 उसे दिना सपटी करना पड़ता है...
 स्टेशनों पर बिखरे उसके सामानों की गठरियाँ
 और रेलवे ट्रैक पर दितराई उसकी रोहियाँ
 केवल अपने गाँव जाने की आस में
 लंगों बनकर सिसकियाँ लेती हैं...

आईना

आईना...
 यह वो आईना है जिसमें
 दर्द भरी उसकी आंखें
 काले रंग में रंजी है...
 चेहरे पर पड़ी दरारें,
 माथे पर चिंतों की रेखाएं और
 धंसते पेट से निकलती धीमी सी आवाज़
 पलायन की चाकर से ढकी है...
 न रहने का छिक्कना है और न ही
 पेट भरने का स्वप्न...
 फटे हुए देश को दिन रात वो
 अपने रक्त से सिलता है...
 आज वही बेबसी की पारीथ से घिरा है...
 उसके मन में अपने परिवार से मिलने की
 तिलामिलाहट है जो,
 तपती सड़कों पर नंगे पांव चलता है...
 उसके नंगे पद चिह्नों पर जब,
 मीडिया की निगाहें दौड़ती हैं, तब
