2. Report of Two Day National Students' Seminar on "Gender and Visual Culture"

Date: 3 and 4 March 2022

Organised by: Department of English

Details of Speakers: Dr. Moushumi Kandali (Keynote Speaker), Dr. Paula Sengupta, Smt. Shanti Devi, Mr. Farhan Ibnee Abid and Mr. Sandeep T.K. – (Plenary Panelists)

Teacher Co-ordinators: Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee and Dr. Anchala Paliwal

Summary:

The Department of English, Vivekananda College, organised a Two Day National Students' Seminar on "Gender and Visual Culture" on 3rd and 4th March 2022 on Google Meet platform. The Department received an overwhelming response once the CFP was circulated and numerous abstracts from B.A., M.A., M.Phil. and Ph.D. scholars were received from all over India. After a meticulous perusal, 37 participants were selected for presentations.

The Google Meet link for Day 1 of the online seminar was <https://meet.google.com/uxo-pyrn-jda>. The first day began with a welcome note by Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Officiating Principal, Vivekananda College and Dr. Jyotika Elhance, Teacher-In-Charge, Department of English. Dr. Chaandreyi Mukherjee, Assistant Professor, Department of English, introduced the theme of the seminar. The extraordinary Keynote Address by Dr. Moushumi Kandali, Assistant Professor, Department of Cultural Studies, Tezpur University enlightened everybody with perceptions of gender and art and more than 250 individuals attended the address.

This was followed by the first session – "After All, What Are We Without Movies: Contours of Cinema" chaired by Dr. Mubashir Karim, Assistant Professor, Department of English, University of Kashmir, in which 8 participants presented on a variety of interesting topics like depiction of female rage, parenting strategies, trans representations, gendered body in films and series. The second session titled – "A Room of One's Own: Filming Food, Disability and Technology" was chaired by Dr. Barath Nataraj, Assistant Professor, Journalism and Mass Communication, North-Eastern Hill University. This session had scintillating presentations on portrayals of disability in movies, visualization of food, CGI effects, techno-orientalism etc. The first day of the seminar was concluded with a virtual exhibition of the paintings of Ms. Prabha Shah, a brilliant artist with disability.

The Google Meet link for Day 2 of the online seminar was <https://meet.google.com/upp-rykt-ske>. The second day of the seminar began with the third session – "Eyes that Follow like a Tedious Argument: Ways of Seeing" chaired by Dr. Richa Chilana, Assistant Professor (Sr. Scale), School of Liberal Studies, University of Petroleum and Energy Studies, Dehradun. This was a fascinating session with presentations ranging from analysis of select female performers in Indian stand-up comedy and critical studies of nude portraits and (dis)empowerment in films to tracing the history of 'kawaii' girls, representation of hair and its multiple meanings and others. This was followed by the outstanding Artists' Roundtable: Plenary Session in which four outstanding artists came together to share their art and insights. Dr. Paula Sengupta, Professor, Department of Graphics-Printmaking, Faculty of Visual Arts, Rabindra Bharati University, enthralled the audience with her research on prints ranging from colonial era to contemporary times with the subtext of gender. Smt. Shanti Devi, acclaimed Mithila Painter and National Awardee shared her experiences as a female Dalit folk artist. Some of her outstanding paintings were displayed which showed her unparalleled mastery in colour, meticulous arrangement and precision in Mithila Art. Mr. Farhan Ibnee Abid, Associate Faculty, Design for Retail Experience, National Institute of Design, Bangalore, shared his insights on neutrality of gender and gendered objects and his expertise in architecture and design. His multifaceted personality and versatility in painting, dancing, teaching inspired everyone. Mr. Sandeep T.K., an accomplished lens based artist shared his poetic documentation of personal strife and challenges regarding gender identity, sexual orientation and caste discrimination through breathtaking photographs. The Plenary Session was a phenomenal success with very active and exuberant interaction through messages in the chat box as well.

The fourth session – “Can the Visual be Unilingual: Exploring Visual Narratives” was chaired by Dr. Rajitha Venugopal, Assistant Professor, Department of Humanities and Languages, Flame University, Pune and had 7 brilliant presentations on visual narratives and poetry, political graphic novels and visual representations of gendered characters. This was followed by the fifth session - “Can you hear the bass boom? I'm ready”: Musings on Music. This was chaired by Dr. Ved Prakash, Assistant Professor, Department of English, School of Humanities and Languages, Central University of Rajasthan, and had 5 presentations on myriad forms of music including rap, folk, pop and the visual elements in them.

The extremely educative, informative and eventful national students’ seminar was concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Anchala Paliwal, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Vivekananda College.

3. Report of Webinar on Developing Research Skills

A webinar titled “Developing Research Skills” was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with the University of Buraimi, Oman. Earlier this year, Vivekananda College had signed an MoU with the University of Buraimi and with this webinar, the IQAC proudly initiated to promote the association between the two institutions. The webinar was conducted virtually on Thursday, November 25, 2021, from 10:00am – 1:30pm, on Google meet (via following meeting link: <https://meet.google.com/igh-usjg-zjd>). The webinar was attended by around 108 participants and was live telecasted on the college’s Facebook page. We invited Dr. Syed Faraz Hasan, FHEA Director of Research, Innovation and Entrepreneurship, University of Buraimi, Oman and Dr. Shivantika Sharad, Associate Professor, Vivekananda College, University of Delhi to be a part of the program as resource persons. The event began with a warm welcome note by students and Dr. Vanita Sondhi expressed gratitude to the University of Buraimi for associating with our college.

The student coordinators invited Dr. Syed Faraz Hasan to deliver a talk on "Developing Research Skills- Preparing Effective and Convincing Literature Reviews". Dr. Hasan provided the audience with an insightful view on the aforementioned topic using elaborative power point presentation. Some of the key ideas discussed by him included the purview of literature review and its purpose. Thereafter, Dr. Shivantika Sharad took over with an interactive session on “Research Skills-A Comparative Understanding of Quantitative and Qualitative Research”. In her presentation, she distinguished between the qualitative and the quantitative approach in research, discussed the goal of research, she engaged the audience with interactive means and ended the discussion with a short movie on habits to follow in order to have an effective research career. The session reached its conclusion with a question-answer round. The student coordinators delivered the vote of thanks to our resource persons and to Dr. Hina Nandrajog, Dr. Vanita Sondhi and Dr. Shafaq Zareen for initiating such an insightful event.

5. Glimpses of the Journey

OBJECTIVES OF THE FDP

Participants who successfully complete the programme should be able to reach the following goals:

1. To impart vital skills and deepen knowledge of Mathematics and to gain skills through the course work.
2. Be able to communicate mathematical/ logical ideas in writing.
3. Have a deeper understanding of Mathematical Analysis.
4. To introduce some cutting edge research trends in the field of Mathematical Analysis.
5. Be familiar with several subfields of Mathematics (e.g. Numerical Analysis, Topology, Operations Research).

INAUGURAL SESSION

The FDP began with an inaugural session on July 26, 2021 with introductory speech by Dr. Ritika Nagpal followed by presenting a video of lighting the lamp before Maa Saraswati. Welcome address was given by Dr. Hina Nandrajog (Principal, Vivekananda College), Mrs. Anju Nagpal (FDP Coordinator). They apprised the audience about the programme "Mathematical analysis and its applications", its objectives and learning outcome and emphasized about the importance of applications of Analysis in an academic set up. The Inaugural address was followed by announcement of a set of instructions for the participants by Dr. Sandhya Jain (FDP Convener).

DAY-WISE REPORT

The program was held over the course of six days, two live sessions per day. The FDP covered a wide array of topics including their real life applications. At the end of each day, participants were given one-hour library time to do self study. At the end of all sessions one MCQ-based assessment was given to test their grasp of the topics and feedback form was also given so that program can be improved in the best manner

Day 1: 26th July, 2021 (Monday)

Session I: The first session of the FDP focused on "Inequalities and their connection with function spaces" and was delivered by Prof. Pankaj Jain (Professor, South Asian University). The session began with a welcome address by Dr. Ritika Nagpal. The session included the topics of functional inequalities. Prof. Jain had mentioned the important role of inequalities in several areas of Mathematical Sciences the lecture of Prof. Pankaj Jain was started with the basic school time inequalities, e.g. the relationship between the Harmonic Mean, Geometric Mean and Arithmetic Mean Geometric Mean and Arithmetic Mean. The first inequality he introduced was Holder's inequality. He also discussed the Minkowski's inequality and mentioned several cases on different parameters. Next, Sir had connected the relation of inequalities with the sequence space and described the properties of norm on the sequence space. Prof. Jain had highlighted several norms to introduce the Banach space. Furthermore, speaker talked about the connection of Holder's inequality and Minkowski's inequality with the sequence space. Prof. Jain had discussed the integral form/continuous form on the sequence space and introduced measurable functions named as Lebesgue space. The session ended with the vote of thanks expressed by Dr. Ritika Nagpal to the Speaker for his valuable share of knowledge and very interesting and informative talk.

Session II: The second session was held on the topic "Toral Automorphism" by Prof. Tarun Das (Professor, Department of Mathematics, University of Delhi). The session began with a welcome note by Mrs. Seema Taneja.

Prof. Das began his session by introducing the basics of Algebra followed by the results on symmetries, homeomorphism and automorphisms. He perfectly spotlighted the geometrical concepts of torus, the integral matrices with determinant $+1$ and -1 and discussed Total Automorphism on the quotient. The session ended with the vote of thanks expressed by Mrs. Seema Taneja to the Speaker for his very interesting and informative talk.

The presentation of both speakers enhanced their topic and made participants easy to understand. Both sessions were highly interactive and engaging.

Day 2: 27th July, 2021 (Tuesday)

Session I: The first session of the day was on "Mathematical analysis in learning theory" and the resource person was Dr. Sivananthan Sampath (Associate Professor, IIT Delhi). The session began with welcoming the speaker by Mrs. Preeti Chhachhia.

Dr. Sampath began his session by introducing the reproducing kernel Hilbert space. He gave an example of Sobolev space. After that he defined the notion of positive definite kernel. He also established that there is a one-one correspondence between the RKHS and the symmetric positive definite kernel and then discussed about the construction of RKHS using a given kernel K . Some concrete examples of positive definite kernel were also given along with regularization. The talk ended with a vote of thanks to the speaker given by Mrs. Preeti Chhachhia.

Scanned with CamScanner

Session II: The second Session was on "Stability and Bifurcation- An Introduction" and the talk was given by Prof. Peeyush Chandra (Retired Professor, IIT Kanpur). The session started with the welcome and introduction of the speaker by Dr. Shivani Dubey.

The session started with the introduction of Ordinary differential Equation. In this talk, Prof. Chandra defined basic terminologies and form the base for Stability and Bifurcation. To that end, he defined critical points and linearization. He gradually defined the concept of Stability and phase plane analysis of linear and non linear system. As the audience got familiar with linear stability, he discussed the notion of non linear stability.

Prof. Chandra finally discussed about the Bifurcation and gave some examples. Advanced topic and Models of ecological system were left for the next session. At the end of the session, Dr. Shivani Dubey thanked the speaker for giving such a wonderful and an informative session. She further added that we are grateful for the time and effort you took to share your expertise knowledge with us.

Day 3: 28th July, 2021 (Wednesday)

Session I: The first session was conducted on "Modeling and Analysis of ecological system with harvesting" again by Prof. Peeyush Chandra (Retired Professor, IIT Kanpur). The session began with a welcome note by Dr. Shivani Dubey.

The session was in continuation of the last session delivered by him. Prof. Chandra started with the definition of model and gradually developed several standard models like General Prey-Predator model, non-dimensional model etc. He gave interesting examples on several models. In his talk, we have studied the existence of saddle node Bifurcation with the help of Sotomayor's theorem. He also established the global stability result of unique interior equilibrium point. Prof. Chandra's talk was very interesting and knowledgeable. He inspired and motivated us toward the development of Covid-19 model which is very celebrated topic in the recent time. The talk ended with the vote of thanks given by Dr. Shivani dubey.

Session II: The second session was held on "Mathematical analysis in learning theory" again by Dr. Sivananthan Sampath (Associate Professor, IIT Delhi). The session started with the welcome of the speaker by Mrs. Preeti Chhachhia. In this session, Dr. Sampath introduced learning with the help of examples. This lecture was in continuation of the last session which was delivered by him on the same topic. He then defined some learning algorithms and discussed about convergence analysis for regularized learning algorithms. Dr. Sampath discussed a very interesting example of continuous Glucose monitoring from a human body which provide an estimated BG-values in every 5 or 10 minutes. The talk was very interesting in the sense of real life applications of Analysis. The session ended with thanking the speaker for his valuable efforts by Mrs. Preeti Chhachhia.

Day 4: 29th July, 2021 (Thursday)

Session I: The opening session on Day 4 included a talk on the topic "Operators on Hilbert space and Positivity" which was delivered by Prof. Harish Chandra (Professor, Banaras Hindu University). The session began with welcoming the speaker by Dr. Sandhya Jain.

Prof. Harish Chandra started his session with the introduction of Hilbert spaces including basic results. He then defined bounded linear operators on a Hilbert space. As the basic terminologies developed, he moved to self adjoint Operators and also discussed their comparison with real numbers. Finally, he characterized positive Operators and compared them with positive real numbers. The session was very interactive and engaging. Prof. Chandra invited participants to send their queries personally. The talk ended with thanking the speaker by Dr. Sandhya Jain.

Session II: The next session was on the topic "Weighted Shifts on directed graphs and their applications" and delivered by Prof. Sameer Chavan (Professor, IIT Kanpur). The session started with a welcome note and introduction of the speaker by Mrs. Seema Taneja.

In the first half of his talk, he overviewed the theory of weighted shifts on directed graphs. He also defined the notion of circularity and explained the topic through the help of interesting examples. In the second half, he discussed the role of weighted shifts on directed graphs in the wandering subspace problem and the Cauchy dual subnormality problem. He concluded his talk with some open problems. The session was very engaging and ended with a vote of thanks given by Mrs. Seema Taneja.

Day 5: 30th July, 2021 (Friday)

Session I: The topic for the first session was "Discontinuity at fixed points and applications to Neural networks" and the honorable speaker was Prof. R. P. Pant (Professor, Kumaun University). The session began with welcoming the speaker by Dr. Ritika Nagpal.

Prof. Pant started his talk by introducing Fixed point theorem. He then discussed the problem of continuity at fixed points. He established the existence of fixed points and discussed continuity and discontinuity at those points by developing some concepts like k -continuous self mapping. He illustrated the theorem in Euclidean case. Finally he gave application of the above theorem in Neural networks with discontinuous activation function. The talk was full of interesting areas of Analysis. He motivated all participants to do research in this area. The session ended with thanking the speaker by Dr. Ritika Nagpal.

Session II: The title of the session was "Wavelet transform" and the resource person was Dr. Ashish Pathak (Assistant Professor, Banaras Hindu University). The session began with welcome address by Mrs. Anita Bakshi. The session started with the introduction of wavelet in Sobolev space over local fields of positive characteristics. He then defined the concept of Multilevel Wavelet Packets in Sobolev Space over Local Fields of positive Characteristic and gave many interesting examples. He also introduced biorthogonal wavelets and biorthogonal wavelet packets in Sobolev space over local Fields of positive Characteristic. Finally he discussed about wavelets for Non-uniform Non-Stationary MRA on $H^s(K)$. The session ended with a vote of thanks given by Mrs. Anita Bakshi.

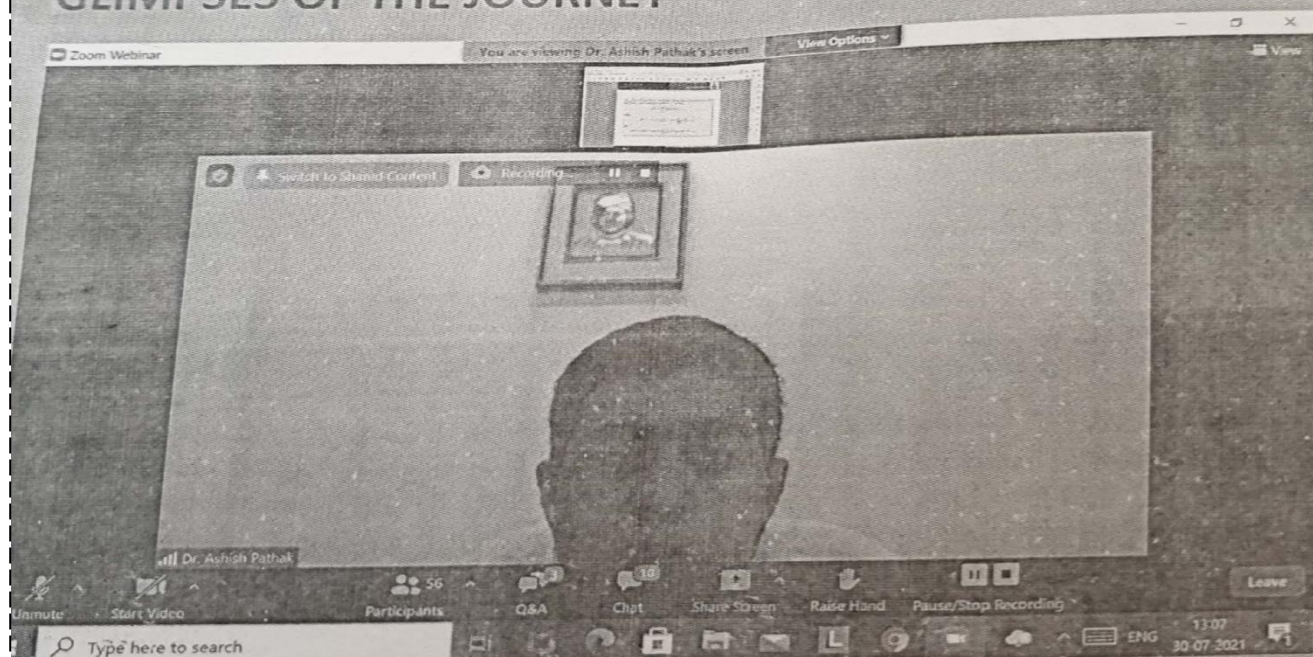

Day6: 31st July 2021 (Saturday)

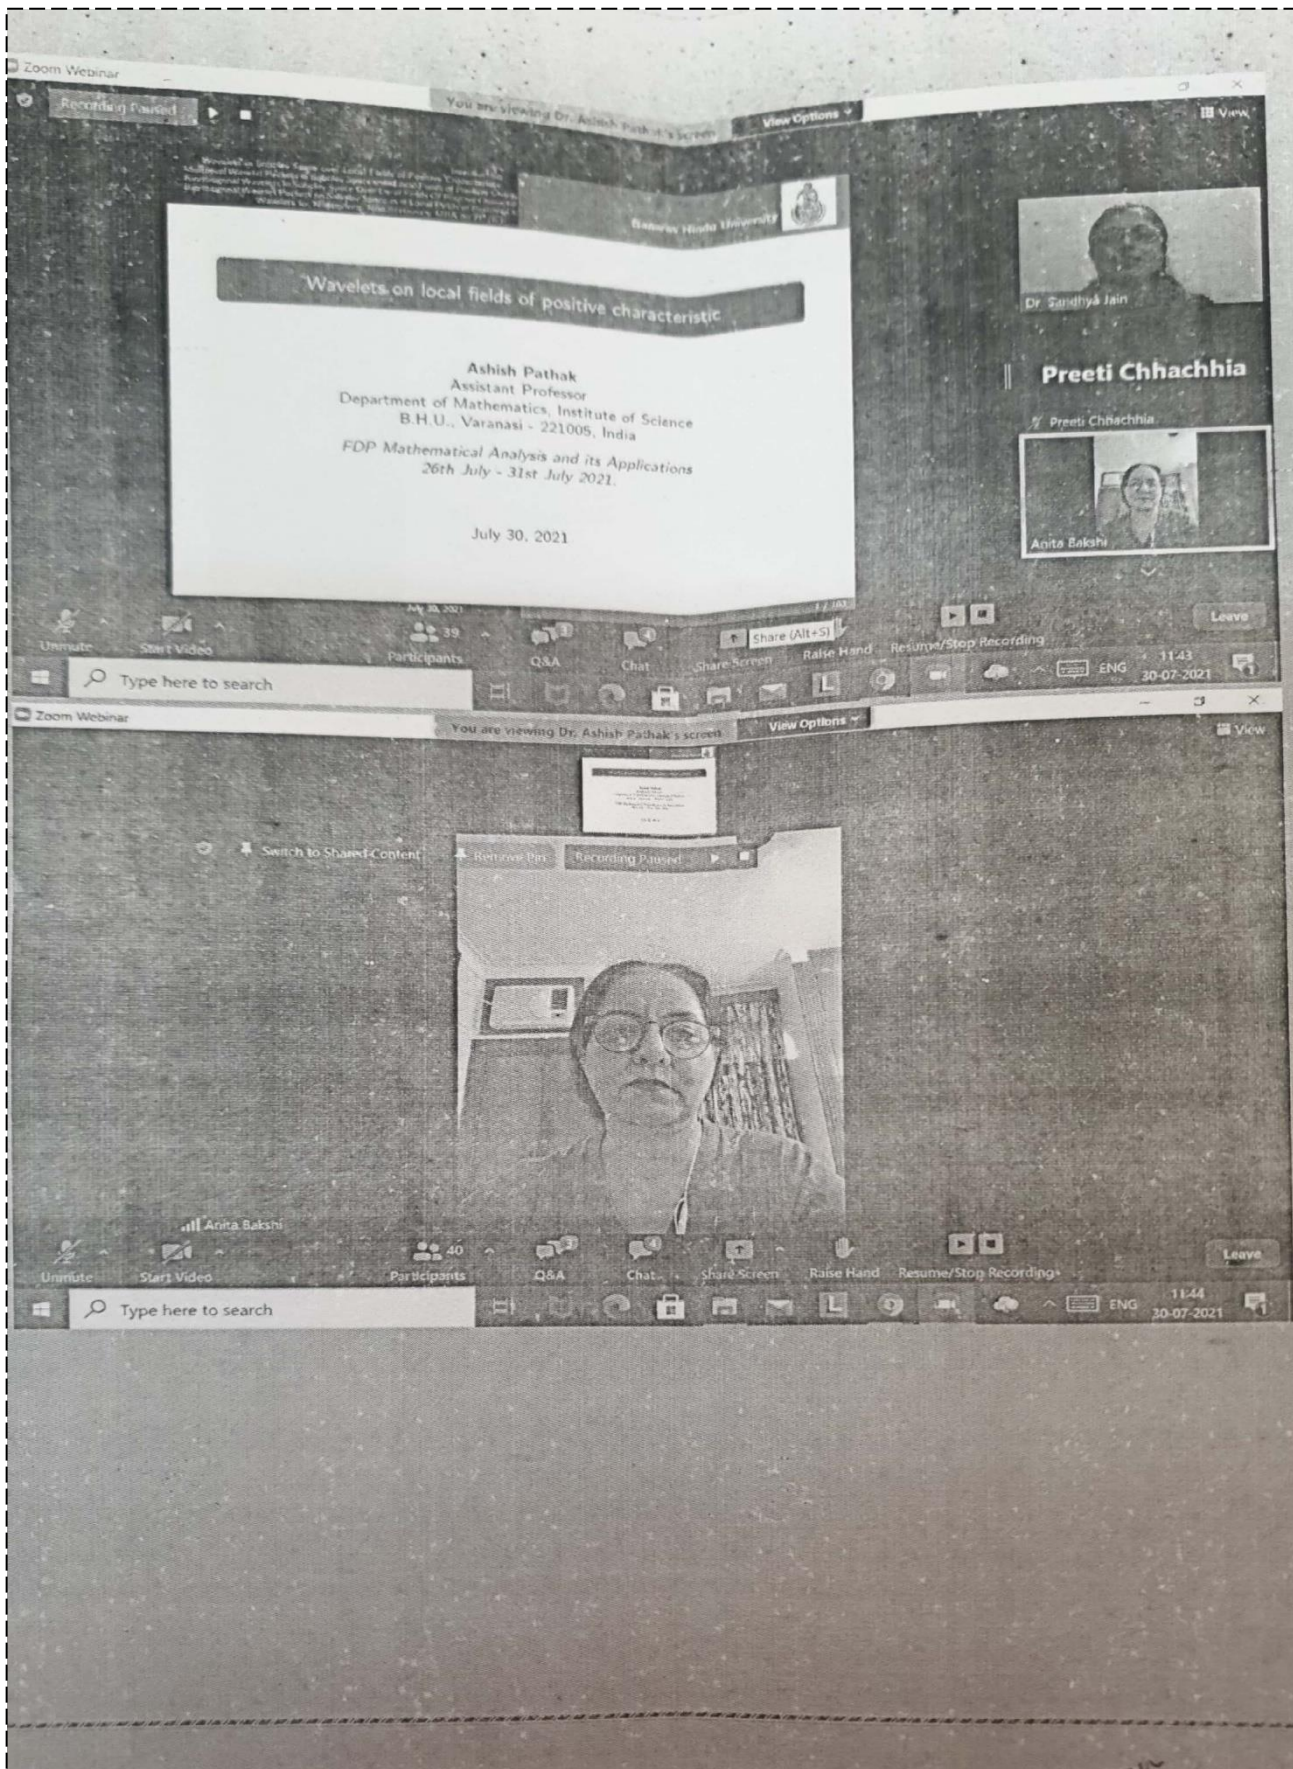

Valedictory Session

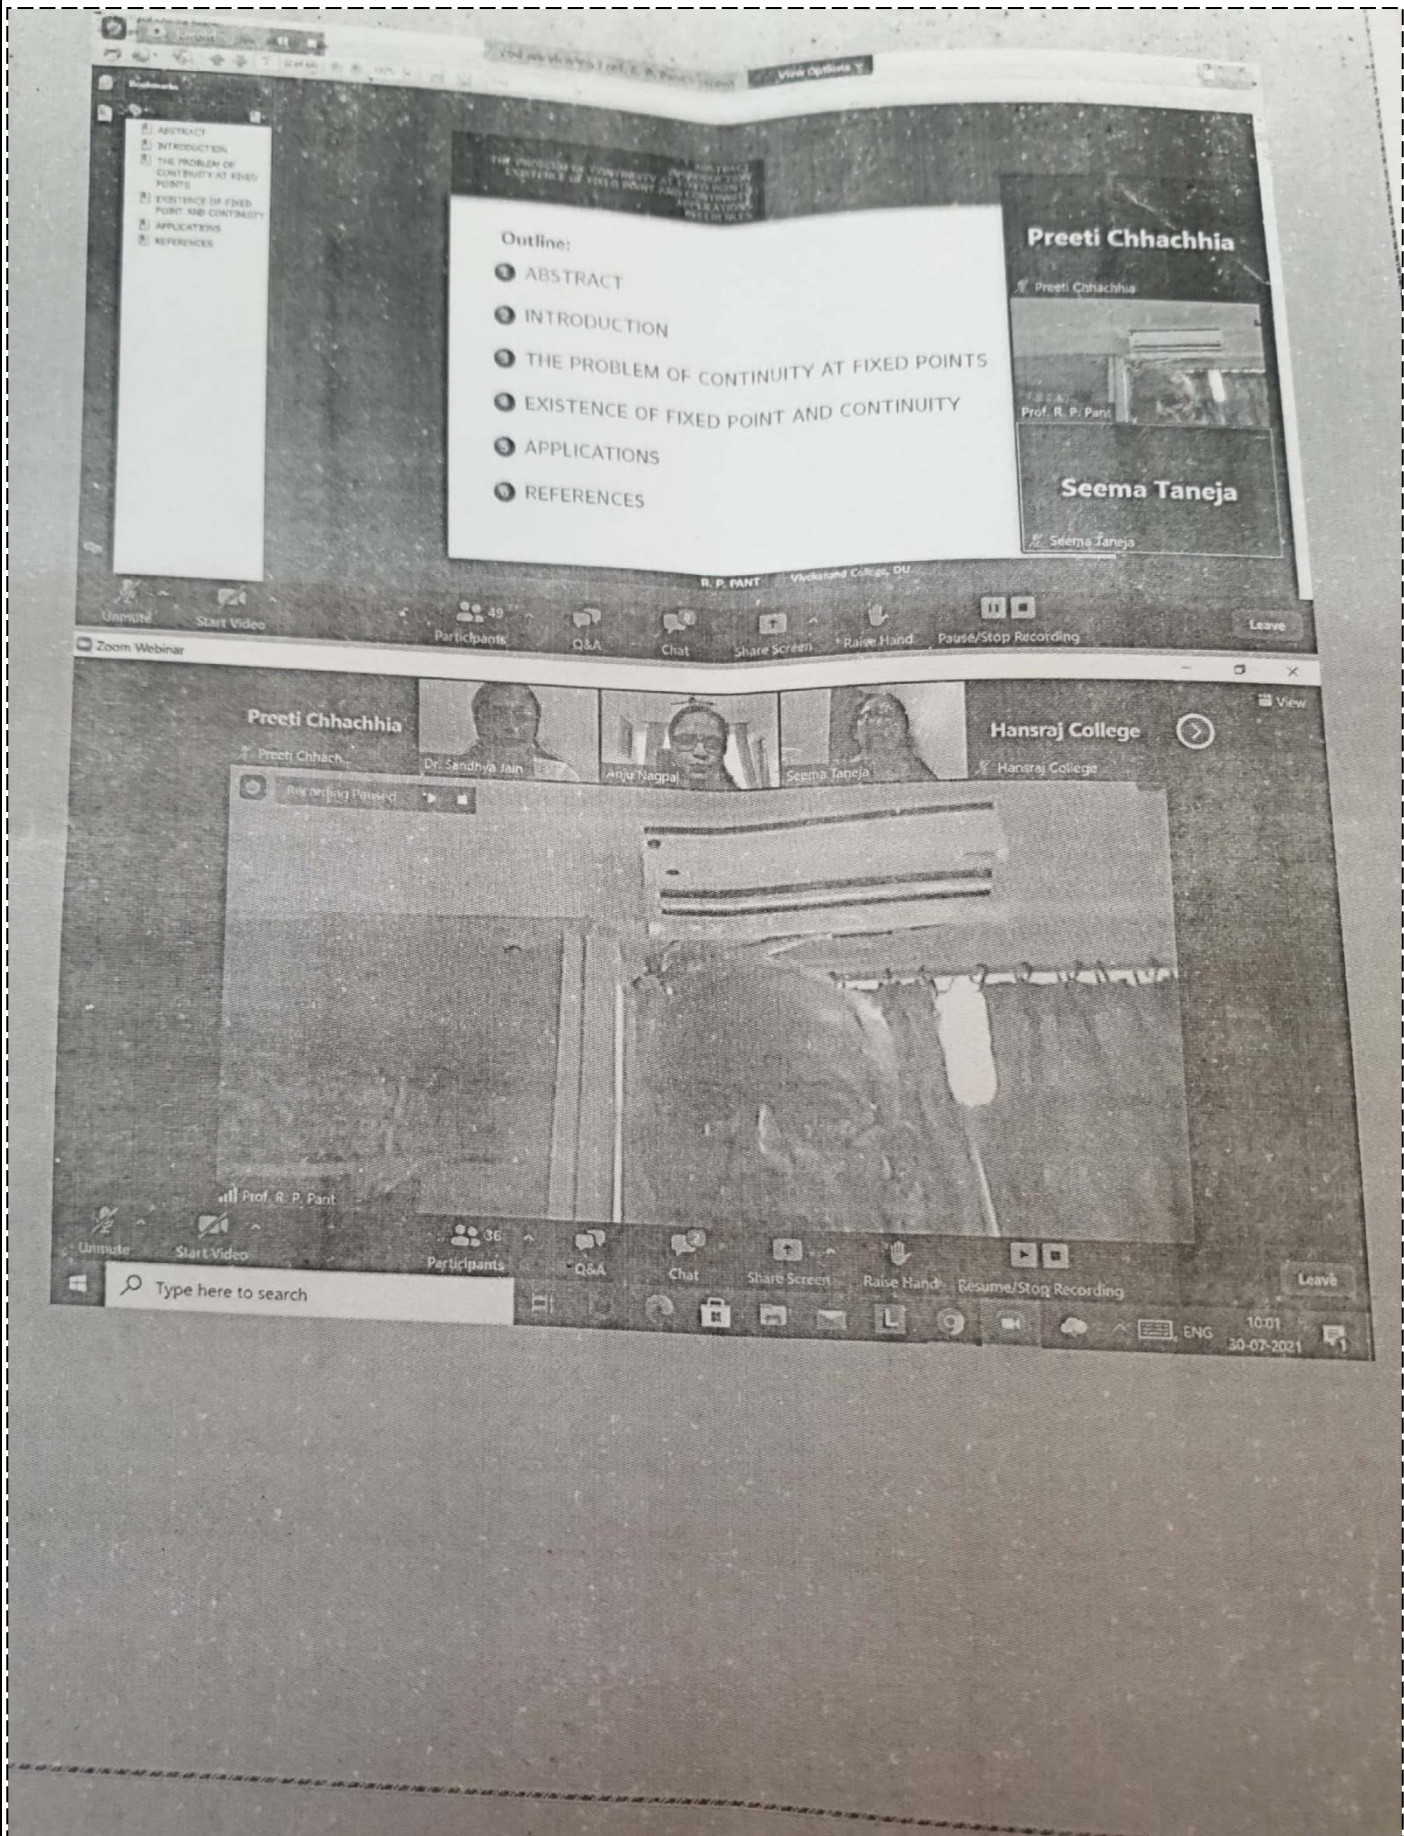

A valedictory session was held to mark the end of the six-day journey of the FDP on the July 31, 2021 in august presence of Dr. Hina Nandrajog (Principal, Vivekananda College), Dr. Sandhya Jain (FDP Convener), Mrs. Anju Nagpal (FDP Coordinator) and all the Faculty members of the Department of Mathematics, Vivekananda college. The valedictory session was duly conducted to honour the dignitaries as well as the speakers, panelists and the participants. The session started with a welcome address by Dr. Shivani Dubey. The session was addressed by Mrs. Anju Nagpal (FDP Coordinator) who delivered a formal vote of thanks and congratulated all participants for successful completion of the FDP and learning about Mathematical analysis. She heartily congratulated and appreciated the entire organizing teams for their efforts for the smooth conduct of the program. She also encouraged that more advance programs should be organized as it has become very integral part of the academia. They appreciated the resource persons for their presentations. At the end, Dr. Sandhya Jain concluded the FDP and spoke at length about the benefits of such kinds of programmes that are increasingly relevant in the field of higher education in this pandemic. She further added that these kind of educational programmes are very encouraging for the teaching fraternity. She expressed her gratitude to the guests for their gracious presence and thanked the Resource Persons, Panelists, Members of Organizing Team and all the Participants for their enthusiastic cooperation.

5. Report of National Webinar titled “Plagiarism: Issues and Challenges”

A National Webinar titled “Plagiarism: Issues and Challenges” was organised by Vivekananda College Library under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC, VNC), in collaboration with the Indian Library Association (ILA). The event was held on 17 December, 2021, virtually via Google meet, 3.30 p.m. onwards and it was telecasted live on Facebook page (Vivekananda College Library DU): https://m.facebook.com/profile.php?id=100006986984312&ref=content_filter. A total of 41 participants attended the webinar (attendance attached).

The event began with the address of Dr. Hina Nandrajog (Officiating Principal). Dr. Rajni Jindal (Librarian, VNC) to grace the audience with a few words. The resource person, Dr. Jaideep Sharma, Professor, IGNOU, Delhi discussed many significant concerns such as the definition of plagiarism, the measures taken against it, UGC guidelines to prevent plagiarism, similarity index levels, steps to approach literature review and much more. For the gathered students, scholars, teachers, and academicians, the aforementioned topics are expected to be highly useful and productive. The session was followed by a question and answer round, moderated by the teacher coordinators.

Why Plagiarism?

- Pressures to publish in well known journals
- Lack of knowledge about how to use information/knowledge already reported
- Incompetence, lack of command on language, not following time schedules
- Lack of knowledge of the consequences of plagiarism
- Lack of institutional mechanisms to take action against cases of plagiarism

6. Report of Entrepreneurship Cell: Report of events from Aug2021 – Feb 2022.

Event 1- Conception of the Entrepreneurship cell.

The meeting of Entrepreneurship Cell, Vivekananda College (DU), was convened by the cell convenor Ms Radhika Srinivasan at 12 pm on 7th February, 2022 via Virtual platform (Google meet: <https://meet.google.com/hhk-gbww-jbf>). 3 Faculty members, 2 guest speakers and 96 students participated in the meeting. Following faculty members of the Entrepreneurship Cell participated in the Meeting:

1. Ms Shilpa,
2. Mr Jaspertap Singh

The Agenda of the meeting was to discuss the organization of Entrepreneurship cell. The meeting started with welcome note from Mr Jaspertap singh. Cell convenor Ms Radhika Srinivasan expressed her gratitude to Dr Laxmi and Prof S K Pahlan for taking out time and for the help extended to move forward on Entrepreneurship cell of Vivekananda College.

Dr Laxmi proposed that the entrepreneurship cell should be all inclusive, maximum students should be allowed to participate in the events and cell should be run and managed by the students. Cell should act as an enabler to generate ideas and to think out of the box. Main emphasis should be on how to create your own enterprise with focus on existing social problems.

Prof S K Pahlan emphasized to ignite the entrepreneurial spirit among students. Prof Pahlan gave an offer that he will institute prize money for competitive events in lieu of entrepreneurship cell events/competitions. Both speakers also assured that once the entrepreneurship cell is functional, they will help the cell in inviting successful entrepreneurs from different fields to interact with students.

Ms Shilpa, The faculty members of entrepreneurship cell updated on the excitement among students as more than 450 students enrolled for entrepreneurship cell whatsapp group and she has to make two whatsapp group to accommodate students participants in entrepreneurship cell. She also proposed a plan to select office bearers and to design a google form to collect information of all student participants.

Event 2: Planning first event under entrepreneurship cell

The meeting of Entrepreneurship Cell, Vivekananda College (DU), was convened by the cell convenor Ms Radhika Srinivasan at 13:10 pm on 3rd March, 2022. Following faculty members of the Entrepreneurship Cell participated in the Meeting:

3. Ms Shilpa,
4. Mr Jaspertap Singh

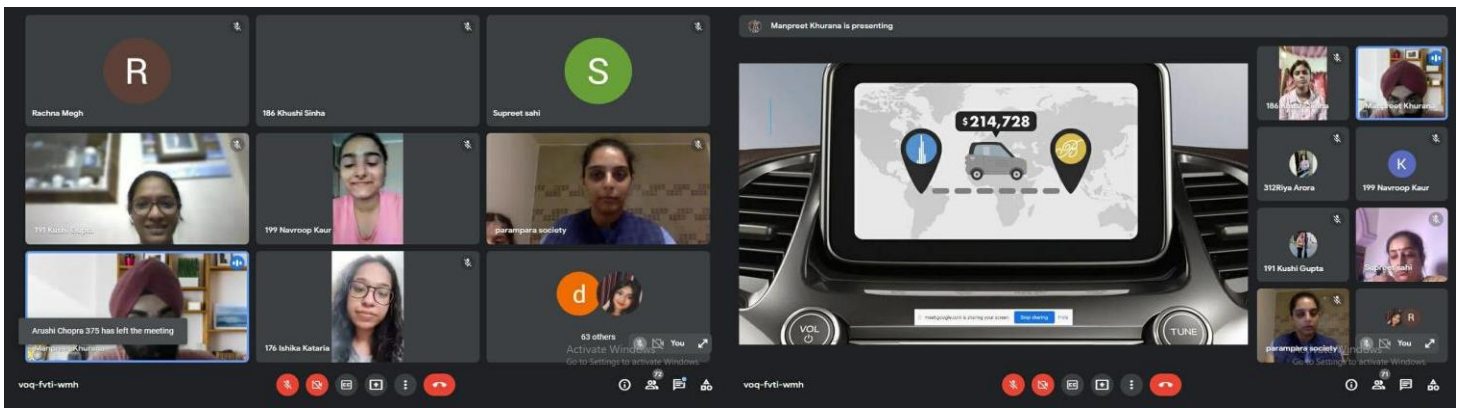

The Agenda of the meeting was to discuss on organizing an event under Entrepreneurship cell.

The members of entrepreneurship cell discussed on organizing event in the month of March and April, 2022. Entrepreneurship cell convenor Ms Radhika Srinivasan proposed to organize an event in second or third week of April, 2022 as all three years of students will be available in college. Ms Shilpa will make students coordination team before the event and will seek suggestions from students on the kind of event to be organized in future. Mr Jaspertap Singh & Ms Shilpa will find resource person suitable for an interactive session on startup/how to build a business pitch/ Government policies on entrepreneurship. Ms Radhika Srinivasan will speak to Dr Laxmi or Prof Pahlan to contact a successful start up/ Entrepreneur to be invited for interactive session with students.

7. Report of Industry 4.0

On 16th October 2021, a webinar on industry 4.0 was conducted under the guidance of Rachna Megh Ma'am(society convenor) and Laxmi Ma'am. It was a collaboration of Parampara Society and commerce department of Vivekananda College. The session was done by two guest speakers Dr Supreet kaur sahi and Mr. Manpreet Singh khurana. Both the speakers were expertise in the area of seminars and gave great insights on fourth industrial revolution. The session was a great success with 112 registrations and a total of 66 participants were present. The registrations were closed on 15th October at 7pm. The google link for the meeting was <https://meet.google.com/voq-fvti-wmh>. An excel sheet was maintained to know the actual no. of registrations. It was a great interactive, sir and ma'am answered all our questions with so much patience and it was such a lively session. From what industry 4.0 is to how it gonna change the employment opportunities in the world. How uber and booking cabs got invented. What are the methods that are going to adapt us fourth industrial revolution and for how much years it's gonna last.

8. Report of Webinar - VIDYARTHI JEEVAN ME DEEVAR PATRIKA KI BHUMIKA

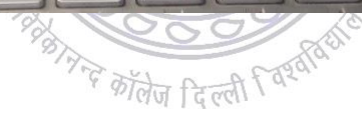

Encouraging all languages, Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya's wall magazine "Kasturi" under the patronage of Dr. Yojna Kalia, Senior Professor of Hindi-Department, on the completion of 10 years from 14 September 2011 till now, on 14 September 2021 on the tenth anniversary of "Kasturi". A one-day webinar on the topic " VIDYARTHI JEEVAN ME DEEVAR PATRIKA KI BHUMIKA" was organized by the Hindi Department on 17th September 2021, at 12:15 PM, on Google Meet. On this occasion, two guest speakers associated with the campaign of Wall magazine were invited as subject experts, in which they shared their experiences and told the possible challenges. One, leading the campaign of Deewar Patrika was Vijaya Sati, a senior teacher at Hindu College, University of Delhi, and Mahesh Punetha, who ran the Deewar Patrika campaign in Uttarakhand

9. Report of Workshop on “Introduction to Econometrics” offered by Skill Enhancement Committee

Skill Enhancement Committee offered a course on “Introduction to Econometrics” to the students of our college. The course was taught by Mr. Amit Kumar, Department of Economics. A total of 4 classes (2 Hours each) were taken on 06/03/2022, 13/03/2022, 10/04/2022 and 15/04/2022 via Google meet. Following was the link for the classes:

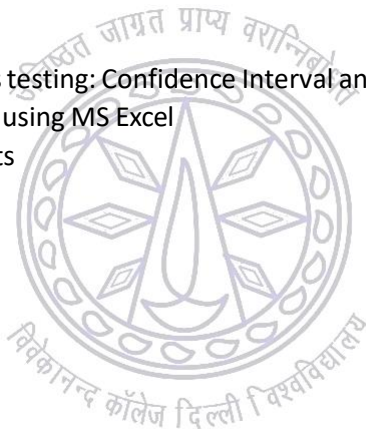

<https://meet.google.com/bdd-veku-bsw>

The following topics were covered during the course:

1. What is Econometrics?
2. Applications of Econometrics
3. Types of Data: Cross-Sectional Data, Time Series Data and Panel Data
4. Simple Linear Regression using Ordinary Least Square Method
5. Assumptions of Classical Linear Regression Model
6. Properties of OLS Estimators
7. Gauss-Markov Theorem
8. Goodness of fit
9. Interval Estimation and Hypothesis testing: Confidence Interval and Test of Significance Approach
10. Regression and Hypothesis testing using MS Excel
11. Interpretation of Regression Results

13. Report of Webinar on Advancing Research and Innovation

An International Webinar was organized by Training Institute at University of Buraimi in collaboration with the Research, Innovation and Entrepreneurship Unit of University of Buraimi, Oman in cooperation with Vivekananda College, University of Delhi as part of MoU signed between University of Buraimi and IQAC, Vivekananda College, University of Delhi on 10th March 2022 on the topic “Advancing Research and Innovation”. The webinar was started with the introduction of the speakers along with a brief note on MoU between these two colleges in India and Oman by Dr. Syed Faraz Hasan, Director of Research, Innovation and Entrepreneurship, University of Buraimi, Oman. There were three speakers for the webinar which highlighted the significance of research and innovation in applied as well as social sciences.

The first session was conducted by Dr. Syeda Kanwal Zaidi, Innovation Technologist, Massey University, New Zealand on “Mastering the Art of Digital Innovation and Transformation”. She talked about digital transformation to boost organizational productivity. In her talk she discussed Digital Innovation and Trends 2022 like Cloud computing, Hyper automation and Cybersecurity Mesh.

The second speaker was Dr. Saad Aslam, Lecturer, Manukau Institute of Technology, New Zealand on “Essentials of Effective Research Proposal Writing”. In his talk, Dr. Saad emphasises the significance of a Project, why a blueprint of project is required?, what are the various steps involved in writing and presenting a Research Proposal.

The third session was taken up by Dr. Arvind Mishra, Professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India on “Significance of Conceptual Framework in Research”. The talk was on various aspects of framing research. He explained in his talk how the theoretical framework leads into the conceptual framework, which is a specific exploration of an aspect of the theoretical framework and how the conceptual framework is used to arrive at a hypothesis.

The webinar was concluded with question and answer session and with the vote of thanks by Dr. Syed Hasan. Students and faculty’s from various colleges of University of Buraimi, Oman and Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, India attended this webinar and benefitted from this webinar.

Press Release

University of Buraimi organizes a webinar entitled “Advancing Research & Innovation” with participation of experts from India and New Zealand

Supporting the importance of the scientific research and innovation at the University of Buraimi (UoB), the Training Institute at UoB, in collaboration with the Research, Innovation and Entrepreneurship Unit, hosted an international webinar on “Advancing Research and Innovation” on March 10, 2022; in cooperation with Vivekananda College, University of Delhi, India. The webinar featured talks delivered by international experts from New Zealand and India, which highlighted the significance of research and innovation in applied as well as social sciences.

Dr Kanwal Zaidi, an Innovation Technologist at Massey University, New Zealand, presented ideas on the digital transformation to boost organizational productivity. Dr Saad Aslam of Manukau Institute of Technology, New Zealand, gave his insights into effective presentation and writing of research proposals. Dr. Arvind Mishra from Jawaharlal Nehru University, India, presented the significance of conceptual framework in research.

UoB’s Research, Innovation and Entrepreneurship Director Dr Faraz Hasan, who moderated the webinar, gratefully noted that the speakers presented evidence-based, well-reasoned arguments to advance research and innovation.
